Subject bibliography: “Respect”

2021-2022 School Year

INTRODUCTON

In life, we often hear the phrase "respect" quite a few times. Right from the time we were in school, each of us must have been educated about respecting others, respecting what is right, respecting the things around us. Respect is the expression of a right attitude or appreciation towards a person, thing or phenomenon. It is also the respect for the honor, interests, dignity, decisions or distinctive features of the subject being evaluated.

In order to contribute to educating students about respect, we compiles the "Respect" thematic directory. Through basic concepts, stories and exploration activities, students will increase their understanding and awareness of the meaning of respect in life.

The bibliography includes 10 titles as follows:

1. Ai cũng nhìn thấy chú mèo
2. The bad seed
3. Bé biết chia sẻ và luôn tôn trọng : Truyện tranh song ngữ Anh-Việt
4. Bunny Bear
5. Dấu chấm : Truyện tranh
6. Gieo mầm tính cách. Tử tế
7. Last stop on market street
8. Library lion
9. Lịch sự và tôn trọng : Dành cho trẻ em từ 6 tuổi đến dưới 11 tuổi
10. Thái độ : Truyền cảm hứng và động lực cho tất cả mọi người

In the compilation process, although we have tried our best, it is inevitable that there will be shortcomings. We look forward to receiving contributions and construction from readers so that the next compilation of the bibliography will be more complete.

Sincerely thank!

1. Ai cũng nhìn thấy chú mèo

Ai cũng nhìn thấy chú mèo / Wenzel Brendan ; Phan Điều dịch. - Hà Nội : Phụ nữ, 2018. - 33tr ; 28 cm.

Summary:

There is a cat going around the world, the children will see the cat with his beard, ears and legs. As a dog friend will see what the cat looks like? It will certainly be different from the image of a cat that you fish, mouse or bee have seen.

This book promotes children's observation, curiosity and imagination. The author has helped readers see the various forms of a cat, as well as understand that what we see will change depending on our perspective. Therefore, it is necessary to respect the views and perspectives of others even if they do not think the same as us.

2. The bad seed

The bad seed / Jory John ; Pete Oswald illustrated. - New York : HarperCollins, 2019. - [35]p : ill. ; 29cm.

Summary:

Although Bunnybear was born a bear, he feels more like a bunny. He'd rather roam in the bushes than roam the woods, and inside he's soft and small, like a rabbit, instead of muscular and big like a bear. The other bears did not understand him, and neither did the rabbits. Will Bunnybear ever find a friend who likes him as much as he does? The story sends a message of friendship and acceptance of each other's uniqueness.

5. Dấu chấm : Truyện tranh Bunny Bear

Dấu chấm : Truyện tranh / Peter H. Reynolds ; Thái Hà Books dịch. - Hà Nội : Lao động, 2019. - 31 tr : minh họa ; 25cm.

Summary:

The art teacher approached Vashti, smiled and exclaimed: "Ah! Being a white bear in a blizzard!", Vashti exclaims, "I can't draw". Then, with just a few suggestions, Vashti boldly took a color box that had never been used, and soon created an extremely vivid "dot" painting gallery: Since then, Vashti has been extremely excited about art, not only that, but she is very confident and loves life. During her painting exhibition, she motivated a boyfriend when he saw him looking at Vashti's paintings and wishing: If only I could draw as well as Vashti!

The story conveys messages about self-belief and the importance of caring and encouraging adults that can bring positive changes to children.

6. Gieo mầm tính cách. Tử tế

Gieo mầm tính cách. Tử tế / Yên Hà biên soạn ; Võ Thị Hoài Phương minh họa. - Tp. Hồ Chí Minh : Trẻ, 2018. - 81tr. : minh họa ; 19cm.

Summary:

Children's personality is formed very early, through education in the family, through the actions, words, and behaviors of people around. But at a young age, it is not possible to force children to develop their character according to the wishes of their parents by mere teachings and dry moral lessons, but beautiful examples of that character must be instilled in children from the very beginning. with lively, engaging stories.

The book series Sowing Character (12 volumes) is a collection of such stories. Each episode is a seed of personality planted in children with touching and meaningful stories worth pondering.

Each story is presented with a proverb, idiom, folk song, quotation to further emphasize the message that the selector wants to convey. Not only that, the lessons after each story are built closely, many suggestive for readers to develop more thoughts after reading the story, compare, apply in reality and examine themselves.

7. Last stop on market street

Last stop on market street / Matt de la Pena ; Christian Robinson illustrated. - New York : G.P. Putnam's Sons, 2015. - [...]p. ; 28cm.

Summary:

Every Sunday after church, CJ and his Nana take the bus to the final stop on Market Street. This Sunday, CJ starts to wonder why they have to wait in the rain, why they don't have a car, why they always make this trip. Nana responds by giving him different ways to appreciate what they have, their habits, and the different people they meet. Nana shows CJ the value of being different and the joy of helping those in need. Last Stop on Market Street is a book that questions the diversity of people and their circumstances, the obligation to charity, and the role of helping others in the good life. And finally, the book addresses the topic of inequality and what an appropriate response should be.
